Real Game (7th/8th grade) Workshop

Black Canyon Conference Center

Phoenix, AZ

Saturday, September 18th, 2004

7 AM to 4 PM

Registration includes continental breakfast, lunch and an afternoon snack. The workshop will be limited to 26 participants on a first come first basis.

A free Facilitator Kit ($250 value) and training will be provided to schools that send a team of two (a counselor and a teacher or two teachers) to attend the workshop; if they have not received one from AzCRN in the past and they make a commitment to provide the curriculum to their students this Fiscal Year. Facilitator kits are required for the training; therefore if you do not attend as a team member, you will need to bring a kit with you. Kits take at least 3 weeks to receive; therefore you will need to order your kit from the National Life Work Centre a month prior to training. For more information about the Real Game Series or to order the kit go to
